ITU (international)

•Establish radio bands
•Assign radio frequencies
•Assign orbital positions in the geostationary satellite orbit
•Help prevent harmful interference between radio stations of different countries
• Improve the use of radio-frequencies and of the geostationary-satellite orbit for radiocommunication services.

FCC (United States)

•Established by the Communications Act of 1934
•regulates interstate and international communications by radio, television, wire, satellite and cable.
•Covers the 50 states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions.